Darlington Heights

Your correspondent has been silent for some time owing to sickness and death in the family.

We have many sad homes in this community, where either the mother or the father have been taken in the past year.

Be ye therefore ready, for at such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

The death of Mr. Sam H. Thackston, beloved husband of Mrs. Erie B. Thackston, was quite a shock to his family as he was thought to be much better.

This verse describes the way he was called up higher :

A summons was given—
A quiver, a pause of the heart,
Visions of angels—
Then death.

Mrs. T. H. Snead, of W. Va., has returned home after spending several weeks with her father, Mr. E. B. Towler.

Mrs. Robert Mahoney is quite sick with influenza.

Mr. James H. Thackston, who was sick in a hospital in Marza, Texas, at the time of the death and burial of his father, writes that he hopes to be with his mother as soon as he can be allowed to come.

Mr. & Mrs. W. J. Cahirt are the fond parents of a little da ghter, Bessie May.

Mrs. Marietta Anderson, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Allen, continues very feeble. Mrs. Anderson is in her ninetieth year.

The entire family of Mr. C. H. Towler are sick. Mr. Towler runs a school bus from Bethlehem to Darlington Heights. Mr. Dick Shorter is acting as substitute.

Mr. Edward Carter and Miss Ruby Carter, both of Prince Edward Co., were married in Farmville, on Saturday, February 4th. We wish this young couple many years of happiness.

Mrs. James Anderson has been confined to her home by sickness for some time.

There will be a play at Darlington Heights School, Thursday night, February 9th.

Mrs. D. M. Canada of Halifax Co., is nursing the sick in the home of Mr. O. H. Towler.

Cornelius C. Calhoun

Cornelius C. Calhoun, died Saturday in Lynchburg from paralysis. He was seriously sick only last week, though in declining health for some time. He was 72 years of age and was born in Appomattox county. He was retired 4 years ago by the Norfolk and Western Railway Company with a a certificate of merit after 41 years of continuous service. Surviving are the the widow, Mrs. Lelia Calhoun; two daughters, Mrs. O. C. Paulette, Evergreen; Mrs. H. G. Basham, Lynchburg; and five sons, Charles E. Calhoun, Detroit; S. Calvin Calhoun, Columbus, and James D., Clarence H. and Ernest Calhoun, all of Lynchburg.

Mrs. John C. Turner

Mrs. Courtney Wythe Turner, widow of Captain John C. Turner, died Sunday morning at her home, Dunleith, near Gienmore in Buckingham county.

Mrs. Turner, who was one of the best known women of the county, was in the 96th year of her age. She was one of the few women left who passed through the four years of the war between the States and was identified with work among the Confederate Soldiers, both during and after the war. She was the last of a groupe of women, who founded at Glenmore, Emanuel Episcopal Church.

She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Joseph K. Irving, Miss Mary Turner, John C. Turner, Thomas F. Turner and Henry T. Turner, of Buckingham County; Eldridge Turner of Columbia S.C.; Rolfe E.Turner, Marion, S. C., and a number of more distant relatives through the State and the South.

PLACE BIRDS AVOID MENACE TO AIRMEN

Mysterious Threat Lingers on Pennsylvania Mount.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Recalling the fact that each year several United States army air service pilots come to grief on the rugged mountain slopes in the vicinity of Uniontown, Pa., scientific investigation to determine whether a deadly airplane menace hangs over that section is to be undertaken by the Pennsylvania State Aeronautical commission.

The investigation is to be made in connection with the work of surveying and routing new airplanes across the Keystone state.

In years gone by, when Langley field, Moundsville, was the midway station on the model airway between Dayton, Ohio, and Washington, the fall and winter was a usual period for crashes in the mountain sections. Almost miraculously the pilots of army planes escaped death one year, when there were no less than nine valuable ships landed from the mountain recesses as wrecks after the pilots had lost control.

Avoided by Birds.

Many airmen assert that a mysterious threat to flying men lingers over sections of the high ridge which separates the eastward from the air-path to the west. They point to the deaths of Pilot E. R. Goodwin, Newyard, Ohio, and William D. Zollman, mechanic, of Fredericktown, Ohio, who were killed when their plane, modern in every respect, crashed. Both men tried to jump, but had no time. Their broken bodies were found beside their wrecked plane in the mountain forest.

And the pilots point to the fact that long known to dwellers in the mountains; that there are certain spots which birds avoid in their flights. Even in the spring and autumn migrations, when the birds generally fly in a straight airline, they detour from these suspected areas.

"Spotty" Atmosphere.

There may be a key to the conditions when it is established why motorists traveling the National or Lincoln highways over the "Big Fellow" suddenly find their motors stalled. There seems to be a peculiar atmosphere "in spots," unbalanced air probably, or that condition which all research in physics seems to disprove—an atmospheric vacuum.

Aviators may have this same motor trouble over the mountains, it is pointed out, and they talk of the Pennsylvania ridges as of "bad lands" or, in the vernacular of the air, as "bad clouds." A number of machines dependable in every way have crashed in the mountains—they just have dropped.

What did the aviators, who looked death in the face, see? What did they realize in the bursting flash of their descent in their helpless, stippling planes? If any in that instant comprehended the cause of the disaster, the knowledge died with him. None who fell over the mountain lived to disclose it.

They Challenge Comparison with the Proudest
Dodge Brothers magnificent Seniors have already achieved a unique and enviable distinction.
By delivering a quality of power unknown to their price class, they are no longer thought of in their price class, but challenge constant comparison with the proudest names in motordom.
Records of Senior brilliance are daily pouring in from all parts of America, and invariably the trend of owner enthusiasm runs the same—
"No car at any price can surpass Senior performance" . . . "I have owned several cars that cost more, but have never so thoroughly enjoyed driving" . . . "I should like to broadcast my impression of your new Senior. It is splendid!"
Once take the Senior wheel and you will understand why business men, unsolicited, are writing letters of this character to Dodge Brothers.

TWO MIRACLES OF POWER

LESSON TEXT—Mark 4:35-5:20.
GOLDEN TEXT—What manner of man is this that even the wind and the sea obey him?
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Stills the Storm.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Rules the Storm.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Universal Power of Jesus.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus' Power over Nature and Human Life.

1. Jesus Calms the Sea (vv. 35-41).

I. Crossing the sea (vv. 35, 36).

Wearied by teaching the multitudes, He proposed that they take ship at evening time to the other side of the sea, doubtless to escape from the throngs of people.

2. Overtaken by a storm (v. 37).

Even though Jesus was in the boat with the disciples they were overtaken by a storm. It is not God's will that we should escape the storms, but those who have Christ on their boat are safe because that boat cannot go down.

3. Jesus asleep in the storm-tossed boat (v. 38).

In the midst of the turbulent elements He was resting in sleep. The day had been a very strenuous one and He was weary. He who made the sea could well lie down and sleep, though the storm violently raged.

4. The terrified disciples (v. 38).

In their minds nothing but disaster and death awaited them. They were not only terrified, but they chided Jesus for sleeping while they were in such great danger.

5. Christ's rebuke (vv. 39, 40).

(1) The wind (v. 39).

This showed the Lord's mighty power to control the forces of nature.

(2) The disciples (v. 40).

He rebuked them for their lack of faith. He showed that they were looking upon their circumstances instead of upon their Lord.

6. The effect upon the disciples (v. 41).

They were filled with great fear. A little while ago they were afraid in the face of the storm; now they are afraid in the presence of the Lord.

II. Jesus Heals the Gadarene Demoniac (5:1-20).

After the stilling of the tempest, Jesus crossed to the other side of the sea into heathen territory.

1. Met by a demon possessed man (vv. 1-5).

This man was in a desperate condition. He was so fierce that no one could safely pass that way. He wore no clothes (Luke 8:27). No chains were strong enough to hold him and no one was able to tame him. In the night time his hideous cries could be heard while he vented his rage by cutting himself with stones. Many today are demon possessed. Much of the insanity of the age is traceable to this cause. As the coming of the Lord draweth nigh these things will increase (I Tim. 4:1).

2. What the demons knew about Christ (vv. 7-9).

They knew that He was the Son of God and that He had come to destroy the devil and his works. Among the demons there is no doubt as to the deity of Christ and the judgment to come, though we have many theologians and preachers who say they do not believe it. The devil blinds their eyes so they cannot understand (II Cor. 4:4.)

3. Christ's power to deliver from the devil (vv. 10-13.)

He cast out the demons from the man (v. 8). The demons could be sure Christ, not daring to dispute His power, so they begged to be permitted to enter the swine. As soon as the Lord loosed the pervait, they hastened away to hurl the swine to destruction.

4. The effect upon the people of the city (vv. 14-17.)

The keepers of the swine fled to the city and made report of what had occurred. This attracted many people out, but when they realized the loss of their hogs they besought Him to leave their coasts. They cared more for their hogs than for Christ and the cure of this man. These Gadarenes have many successors today.

The man who was healed sent home to testify (vv. 18-20).

No doubt it would have been safe and pleasant to abide with Jesus, but his friends needed his testimony. The best witness for Christ is one who has been saved by Him. The best place to begin that testimony is at home where one is known best.

STONEWALL

Farmers are busy stripping tobacco and getting ready to burn plant beds. Some have burned. Mr. J. D. Martin continues quite feeble and confined to his bed. Mrs. Annie Laurie Martin of Lynchburg, is with him for short while.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Stratton and sons, Jimmie and Charlie Stratton, spent Saturday night and Sunday with relatives in Lynchburg.

Mrs. J. A. Stratton is spending some time with her daughter, Miss Frances, in the home of her sisters, the Misses Le Grand, in Lynchburg.

Rev. Clark, of Appomattox, filled his appointment at Bethel, Sunday a. m., with good congregation considering the bad roads. He and his family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chick.

Misses Myrtle Smith and Virginia Reynolds visited home people for the week-end at Appomattox.

Beckham

It has been quite a while since I had any news to write, and have but little now.

Everybody seems quite busy trying to wind up the last year's crop of tobacco, to burn plant beds for this year's crop.

There has been quite a bit of sickness throughout the community the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Taylor both have been very sick, they are better at this writing.

Mrs. Ella Moore spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. T. M. Taylor.

Mr. W. E. Moore is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs Bennett Harding and family spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. W. Martin.

Mrs. A. F. Drinkard is spending a few days in Lynchburg with her brother, Mr. Eugene Chick, of Spout Springs, who is there sick in the hospital.

Mrs. Eural Martin has returned to her home at Mr. S. R. Martin's. We are glad to hear that she is able to be at home again.

Rev. J. J. Clarke preached a fine sermon at Trinity last Sunday afternoon.

Mr Robert Moore and family spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Moore.

Miss Elizabeth Moore is spending a few days in Buckingham with their aunt, Mrs. Annie Coleman, of near Toga.

FOREST VIEW

Sure the ground-hog saw his shadow! Don't anybody believe the ground-hog can walk around and cause it to rain and snow. But we do believe the second of February rules the weather for a few weeks any way and I will be glad when that few weeks passes over.

The roads are in a terrible condition, as there has been so little sun to dry them out.

The farmers in this section are preparing their tobacco for market, so when the weather opens they will be ready to begin on their farm crops.

Misses Bernice Ford and Phyllis Carter, of Lynchburg, spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T.H.Ford.

Mr. R.W. Martin has not been so well the past few weeks.

Mr. Clifton Jones and family moved to Hopewell last week, where he has accepted a position. One family moves out and another moves in. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ferguson have moved on the W. T. Nash place, where he will farm another year. We are glad they have moved near by.

Miss Bessie Martin spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Bernice Ford at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin and Mrs. Frank Woolridge spent last Sunday in the home of R. A. Woolridge.

Mr. B. C. Simms and family spent Sunday in the home of R. W. Martin.

The clouds look like more snow.

EVERGREEN

Mrs. Joe Paulette, who has been very ill, is up again and we hope to see her back in her old place in Sunday School soon.

Mrs. H. C. Staples is on the sick list, and her many friends hope to see her out again soon.

Mrs. Oswal Gunter, who entered Lynchburg Hospital last week for treatment, is getting along nicely and hopes to be home soon.

Mr. J. R. Connor is on the sick list.

A community league was organized at the school house here last Friday night, with Mr. Jack Staples, President; Mr. J. P. Paulette, Vice-president; Miss Elsie Marks, Secy. & Treas. We hope much good will be accomplished by this league.

We had hopes of not hearing any more about muddy bad roads when the highway and grey soil roads were made, but with so much rain and snow, the heavy wagons and trucks have very near put them out of commission. There is one place near here that the road men cannot get their machine in to work it, so the fellow that has to travel that way has a hard time.

Mr. Frank Ransone, who underwent a very serious operation at the Lynchburg Hospital recently, is getting along very well.

HIXBURG

The stork visited the home of Mrs. Charlie Harris and left a little boy on Feb. 5th. Both are getting on nicely.

Quite a number of the boys and girls around here received invitations to a valentine party near Phoenix Tuesday night.

Miss Minnie Drinkard is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alice Harwood this week.

The Hixburg school truck, which runs to Pamplin is broken and pupils have to furnish their own way now.

We are very glad to report that Mrs. E. P. Sears is up again.

Sixteen pupils of Hixburg school took the anti-toxin treatment Monday. There will be others to begin next time.

Little Calvin Milam, son of J. P. Milam, had the misfortune to turn a hot pot of coffee over on himself, Monday, burning his chest and face.

There will be preaching at Mathew Baptist Church Sunday morning by Rev. Gordon, of Red House.

Miss Ruta Milam and Mr. Frank Thornton attended a birthday party given in honor of Miss Hazel Phillips, of Prospect, Sat. night. They both reported a good time; their only regret was getting stuck in the mud and having to walk part the way.

Mr. Richard Singleton and brother, of Darlington Heights came up Sunday to see Mr. Johnnie Marshall, who is very sick.

Faith Needed

One of the needs of our time is to have the simple faith of our fathers poured into a Twentieth-century mold. We need the old-fashioned religion—but dressed in a free and flowing robe and not in the strait-jacket in which the bigots would encase it. We need more people who can say "Our Father Who Art in Heaven," and really believe it.—Merle Crowell in the American Magazine.

NOTICE

Whereas the public roads of Appomattox county are being greatly injured by improper use thereof immediately after rains when they are wet and in soft condition, by lumber wagons and trucks and other heavily laden wagons and trucks hauling over them, and

Whereas the Board of Supervisors deem it expedient and necessary that some restrictive measure be taken to protect said public roads.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Board of Supervisors of Appomattox County, by virtue of authority vested in it by Chapter 282, Acts of Assembly of 1918, that it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to haul with animals or motive power, to operate or cause to be operated, over the roads of Appomattox County, any engine, logging on lumber wagons or trucks, heavy machinery, wagons, tanks, automobile trucks and other heavy laden wagons or trucks at any time at which said roads are wet or soft from rains or melting snow, to a sufficient extent to be materially damaged by such hauling or use; however this enactment shall not be construed to prevent the hauling of farm produce.

Any person, firm or corporation, violating the provisions of this road legislation shall be punishable by fine of not less than Five nor more than One Hundred dollars for each offense.

This enactment to be in force and effect on and after February 25th, 1928.

By order of the Board of Supervisors,
D. MOSES, Chairman.
